Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Prior to filing, the organization's Form 990 and annual audit are distributed to all board members. The board of directors then meets with the organization's external auditors to review the Form 990, audit, and all related documents and to ask questions / receive clarification if appropriate. The Form 990 is finalized and filed only when it has been unanimously approved by the organization's board of directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - In addition to requiring all board members to complete an annual questionnaire that requires board members to disclose any potential conflicts of interest, prior to the acceptance of any bid on any contract, all board members are required to divulge any conflict of interest that might arise with regard to said contract. Should a potential conflict arise, the relevant board member is disqualified from considering the contract or proposal, and before any bid or proposal is accepted, it is vetted by the organization's external auditors to ensure that the acceptance of a bid or proposal would not create a conflict of interest. The organization does not accept bids or proposals where it is determined that a conflict of interest might exist.

Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

Modest Needs has always used shared servers to save on cost. In December 2015, our shared server, which contained most of the data necessary to quickly complete the Form 990, suffered a catastrophic failure, after which we learned that the hosting company we had been using had not been performing regular backups as promised. As a result, we had no choice but to completely rebuild all 2015 data from hard copies and other similar physical elements documenting many thousands of contributions and disbursements. As Modest Needs has a very small staff, to complete this work simply took longer than we anticipated, and as a result, for the first time in our history, our Form 990 is being filed significantly past its due date. However, we already have taken steps to ensure that our filings will perpetually on time going forward. Most specifically, we have changed our hosting company and now use private, secure servers which are backed up on both hourly and daily bases, and we now also keep electronic backups on file in our office in the event of a catastrophic data loss which we suffered through no fault of our own in December 2015. We appreciate your kindness and consideration in light of an extremely difficult situation we could not have anticipated or avoided.
